The Carton House, a Fairmont Managed Hotel, is one of Ireland's most exquisite national treasures. Set on 1100 private acres of sweeping Kildare parkland, but only a stone's throw from Dublin, the resort exudes grandeur, and is a place rich with over three centuries of history. The ancestral home of the Earls of Kildare and the Dukes of Leinster, the ancient woodlands, lakes and a meandering River Rye create the perfect backdrop for this awe-inspiring country mansion. The Carton House was a favorite of Queen Victoria, and counts Princess Grace, Prince Rainier and Peter Sellers as its one-time inhabitants.

The Whiskey Library at Carton House is one of the world's leading destinations for high-end whiskey tasting. It is an utterly unique, exclusive venue dedicated to the appreciation of whiskey, with a smart and sophisticated ambience. Sip on a 30-year-old single malt after enjoying a game of golf, or simply stop by before or after dinner to expand your knowledge of whiskey and ignite your senses. Home to over 120 pot stills, malts, and bourbons from around the globe, an experience at The Whiskey Library is bound to journey you across the world in pursuit of your perfect blend. With guidance from top-class whiskey experts, you will learn about the drink's dynamic history which, unbeknownst to many, began in Ireland as far back as the 12th-century.
